CONCEALED PISTOL LICENSE

When do I need to have a Concealed Pistol License?

RCW 9.41.050 required you to have a concealed pistol license when:

- You are carrying a concealed pistol on your person or,
- You are carrying or placing a loaded pistol in a vehicle.

Where do I apply for a Concealed Pistol License?

- If you live within the city limits of Cheney you can apply in person at the Cheney Police Department or the Spokane county Sheriff's Office. If you live in the unincorporated area of the county, you must apply in person at the Sheriff's Office. Please note that a Cheney mailing address is not the same as being a resident of the City of Cheney. Non-Washington residents may apply at any local law enforcement agency in Washington State.

Our address is: Cheney Police Department
215 "G" Street
Cheney, WA. 99004
509-535-9233

What are the application hours?

The application process can take place at anytime during the day. The process takes approximately 30 minutes.

Is there a background check?

Yes. You will need to be fingerprinted and a criminal history background check will be conducted before your license is issued.

Are there any other requirements?

Yes. The following requirements must be met:

- Resident of the City of Cheney or a Non-Washington resident. 21 years of age or older at the time of application.
- United States citizen or have an alien firearms license issued by the State of Washington Department of Licensing in Olympia. Their phone number is (360)664-6616.
- No pending trial, appeal or sentencing on a prohibitive charge.
- No outstanding warrants for any charge, from any court.
- No court order or injunction against possessing a firearm.
- No mental health prohibitions.
- No felony convictions.
- No convictions for any of the following crimes when committed by one family member against another on or after July 1, 1993:
 - Assault IV
 - Coercion
 - Stalking
 - Reckless Endangerment in the second degree
 - Criminal Trespass in the first degree
 - Violation of the provisions of a protection order or no-contact order restraining the person or excluding the person from the residence

How long does it take before I receive my license?

If you are applying for your first concealed pistol license, it may take up to 30 days to complete the background check before the license is issued. If you do not have a Washington driver's license or identification card it can take up to 60 days.

What documents will I need to bring with me?

You will need to bring:

- Picture identification, (i.e. Washington driver's license or identification card)
- A fee of $55.25 cash, check or money order made payable to the City of Cheney. The fee is non-refundable.

How do I renew my Concealed Pistol License?

If you live within the City of Cheney, you may renew your concealed pistol license in person at the Cheney Police Department at anytime during the day. You may renew your license up to 90 days prior to the expiration date for the fee of $32.00, or up to 90 days after the expiration date for a fee of $42.00. You must provide picture identification and your current concealed pistol license. After 90 days you will be required to apply for an original license with the fee of $55.25.

What if I lose my Concealed Pistol License?

If you live in the City of Cheney and your license has been lost, stolen or destroyed, you may obtain a replacement license. You will need to apply in person at the Cheney Police Department at anytime during the day. The fee for a replacement license is $10.00.

Does Washington have reciprocity for Concealed Pistol Licenses with any other states?

Washington has reciprocity or accepts concealed pistol licenses issued by a number of other states, so long as the handgun is carried in accordance with Washington law. The Washington State Attorney General's web site provides a list of those states that have reciprocity with Washington for concealed pistol licenses.
