

MINUTES

Cheney Historic Preservation Commission Meeting –

Location: In-Person at 609 2nd Street / Council Chambers AND Video/Phone Conference
July 7, 2022

Commissioners Attending: Bettye Hull, Scott Wilbanks, Connie Dodge, and Lee Pierce (via Zoom).

Commissioners Absent: Richard Donley and Ken Cameron (one position vacant).

Staff Attending: Brett Lucas & Susan Beeman.

Councilpersons Attending: Jill Weiszmann.

Call to Order: Chairman Hull called the meeting to order at 5:22 p.m. and welcomed reporter Michaela Friedrich from the Cheney Free Press and Councilmember Weiszmann.

Approval of Minutes: Minutes of the March 3, 2022 regular meeting were approved as distributed.

Citizen Participation: None.

Old Business: Cheney Depot Update

Ms. Beeman reported that construction has resumed for the interior rehab of the Cheney Depot, and concrete floors were poured last week. They are hoping to have the building completed and ready for public use around the end of the year.

New Business: Open Public Meetings Act Training

After a delay caused by audio and technology issues, and with assistance from Court Clerk Terri Cooper, the Commission viewed the MRSC training video on the Open Public Meetings Act.

Ms. Beeman noted that the training on open public meetings and public records is required for elected officials and appointed board and commission members at least once every four years.

Commissioner Reports: Commissioner Hull reported that the public library in Malden is looking for book donations, or monetary donations that would enable them to buy books.

Staff Reports:

Adjournment: There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:11 p.m.
