

CHENEY MUNICIPAL COURT

GREGORY J TRIPP, PRESIDING JUDGE

LEGAL DEFENSE SCREENING
PROMISSORY NOTE

CASE# _____

In consideration of legal services rendered and/or to be rendered to:
_____ (Maker) by the City of Cheney Municipal Court Legal Defense
Screening designee, the undersigned promises to pay the sum of $_____ to Cheney Municipal Court.

The amount is to be paid as follows: $_____ payable on or before _____ $_____ payable in monthly installments on the _____ day of each month beginning _____ and continuing until paid in full.

Payment can be made one of three ways 1) pay online with Visa/MasterCard at www.cityofcheney.org; or
2) in person by cash, credit/debit, check or money order at 611 2nd St, Cheney, WA; or 3) mail check or money order to Cheney Municipal Court, 611 2nd St, Cheney, WA 99004. Be sure to include your case number with all payments.

Upon failure to pay the debt in full or any installment when due, it is agreed that this note shall, at the option of Cheney Municipal Court, become immediately due and payable for the unpaid balance thereof. If this debt is not paid as required above, Cheney Municipal Court may refer the debt to a collection agency for collection and may release any information which Maker has provided to Cheney Municipal Court to assist with collection efforts. Upon default, and referral of the debt for collection, Maker agrees to pay the following: allowable interest, collection costs and fees, additional processing fees, reasonable attorneys fees, and court costs incurred in collection efforts.

If Maker is convicted of the alleged crime, the court may order repayment of court-appointed defense attorney's fees as a condition of sentence. Upon court-ordered repayment pursuant to a guilty plea, this promissory note is null and void.

The undersigned further certifies that he/she does not have sufficient resources to pay the entire costs of private legal services without substantial hardship to him/herself and/or family.
